1. Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how our school uses any personal data that we hold about them. This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals we employ, or who otherwise engage with our school in roles such as volunteers, governors/trustees. Our lawful bases for processing your personal data for the purposes listed in section 3 above are as follows:

- Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.
For example: Employed staff have a contract with the school/trust
- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations). We need to process data to meet our responsibilities under law as set out here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/statutory-guidance-schools>
An example of this is 'safeguarding children and young people'
- Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law. Managing a school is considered a 'task in the public interest'. Further details are available here: <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/statutory-guidance-schools>
- Ask for your Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose. An example of this may be certain uses of photos of you.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.
