

CHILD SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW TO KEEP YOUR CHILD SAFE

An evening event for mothers, fathers and carers on

Wednesday 21st January 2015 at 6.30pm

NSPCC Building on George Street, Sheffield S1 (see map)

This informal session will provide an opportunity for mothers/fathers/carers to meet with local agencies involved in combating child sexual exploitation in Sheffield. Mothers, fathers and carers are key to protecting children and young people from exploitation, via direct contact or via the Internet - this event will provide information and help mothers/fathers/carers to know what to do if they are concerned.

Representatives from the following agencies will be present:

- Sheffield Sexual Exploitation Service
- South Yorkshire Police
- NSPCC
- Sheffield Safeguarding Children Board
- PACE - Parents Against Child Sexual Exploitation

Programme for the evening:

6.30pm-7.00pm Refreshments and a chance to browse displays of materials, meet and talk with staff from the above agencies

7.00pm-8.15pm Presentations will cover what child sexual exploitation is, including online risks, how mothers/fathers and carers can help protect their child and what is being done locally to address the issue. There will be plenty of opportunity to ask questions.

Please come along -however booking is essential as places are limited
